Purpose

A church is a fellowship of people who have accepted Christ as Savior and are united by their common relation to the Holy Spirit. A church, like a community or an individual, is always changing. Fundamental doctrines remain the same, but methods of teaching these doctrines and of moving forward objectives must change if the mission of the church is to be accomplished (Bylaws Introduction).

If used as the guide to follow in carrying out the work of the Church, the New Providence Baptist Church Committee Guidelines help the church preserve democratic congregational procedures in a way that honors and glorifies God.

Bylaw References concerning Committees:

I. Membership

Section 3: Responsibilities of Members

3.1 Members shall demonstrate commitment to this body through serving regularly in its various ministries.

3.3 We will adhere to our church covenant (see Constitution, Article 5: Church Covenant and will propose to:

- Walk together in Christian love (John 13:34-35)
- Attend our worship services regularly (Hebrews 10:25)
- Contribute cheerfully, regularly, and sacrificially as God has prospered us (2 Corinthians 9:7; 1 Corinthians 16: 1-2).
- Encourage one another in the blessed hope of Lord's return (1 Thessalonians 4:16-18).
- Abstain from all forms of activity which dishonors the Lord Jesus Christ, cause stumbling to a fellow believer or hinder the winning of a soul to Christ (Matthew 18:7).
- Give Jesus prominence in all things (Colossians 1:18)

III. Ministry Organizations

Section 1. General

1.1 All ministries of the church shall work together to fulfill the church's overall purpose as led by the church staff and elders.

IV. Ministry Teams

Vision: We do not want to merely pass on an informative knowledge of who Christ is, but to pass on the Biblical Truth of the Gospel that can transform their lives.

- We cling to the hope that through the proclamation of the Gospel, the Holy Spirit will regenerate the hearts of young people (Romans 1:16).
- We offer weekly opportunities for study and discipleship year-round, both Sunday Morning and Wednesday Evening (Romans 12:2-3).
- We cultivate spiritual growth through personal Bible Study and prayer, providing a quiet time book each year, and holding our youth accountable (Joshua 1:8).
- We foster a heart for serving the needs of others through service projects (1 Peter 4:10-11).
- We encourage fellowship among the youth to build a community of young believers (Galatians 6:10).
